RMO and Registrar Campaign

The Australasian Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine (AFRM), a Faculty of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP), provides training and continuing education for Rehabilitation Medicine Fellows and trainees throughout all stages of their career.

If you would like to apply for an accredited rehabilitation training position in Queensland, you are encouraged to submit an application via the RMO Campaign and preference as per below. This voluntary process will enable you to participate in a selection process, involving ranking of candidates via curriculum vitae and interview.

In addition to applying through the RMO campaign, you should express interest to the local supervisor at sites you wish to be considered for. Please email rehabregistrarsqld@gmail.com for the list of available positions and supervisor email addresses.

Please note that there are a number of additional training sites who recruit independently of this process and should be contacted directly.
